Personal and Corporate Image Consulting for the Competitive Edge

First impressions matter. In the first thirty seconds people will form opinions about your economic level, educational level, social position, level of sophistication, success in present and current endeavors, and even if they like you. Your appearance, makeup, hair and clothes are as important as your smile.

When you project an image of confidence, you are more likely to succeed in business and social relationships. Whether you are changing jobs or in need of general self-image improvement, you have come to the right place!

Let Evelyn Dysart help you and your organization achieve its potential greatness! Her many years of professional experience enables her to inform, motivate and inspire on a wide variety of topics. Available for seminars, after-dinner speaking or in-company training, Evelyn has proven to be a very engaging and talented speaker.

We pride ourselves on giving individual attention to our students. Each student receives a personal analysis to determine the best method suited for self-development. We offer a step-by-step procedure culminating in becoming the best of the best!

Evelyn Dysart is the founder of Augusta's premiere modeling, talent and casting agency – Dysart MTC. A veteran of the entertainment industry, she has performed worldwide as a model, singer and actress. In addition, she has hosted her own television and radio shows. Her credits include feature films like "I'll Do Anything", "Nightman", "Fried Green Tomatoes" and TV series' such as "It's a Miracle" and "In the Heat of the Night" as well as casting for many commercials and music videos. Through her affiliation with American Modeling and Talent Conventions, she taught workshops in modeling and acting. Evelyn holds a fine arts degree from Averett College in Danville, VA.
